

In Loving Memory

Ashish Baran Datta

1941 - 2023

Our Batchmate Ashish Baran Datta of Civil Engineering branch passed away on June 08, 2023 after a brief, but intense and spirited battle with cancer.

Born to Anjali & Sudhanshu Bhushan Datta on 14 December 1941 at Asansol in Burdwan Dist., West Bengal, he passed School Final from a school in Asansol, and I. Sc. from B. B. College, Asansol. After graduating from B. E. College, Shibpur in 1964 he joined Durgapur Steel Plant (DSP) and posted at the plant site. He retired from DSP as General Manager (Marketing) and started residing in Durgapur permanently

Ever smiling, humble in nature he was loved by all. His departure will definitely deprive us to share his stories remained untold.

His wife Champa predeceased him in 2018 and he had no descendant. Yet he left behind lots of relatives and a community of friends and companions that he loved and cared much like his own family to mourn.

BECA 1964 Paribar prays for his soul to rest in peace in his heavenly abode and offers heartfelt condolences to his family. Let Almighty give his family the strength to cope with the loss.

He is survived by his wife Alo, sons Anindya and Arindam, daughter-in-laws, grand-children and a community of friends and companions that he loved and cared much like his own family.

Town & Country Planning Deptt. (T&CP) of Govt. of West Bengal as Structural Engineer. During his service tenure he was posted on deputation to Muscat, Oman from 1975 to 1980.

He was a very spirited man of principle and fond of old college pals, had an enormous stock of detail reminiscences of old college days and friends. He travelled extensively within India and abroad and very much fond of telling and writing his experiences about new places he visited.
