

In Memoriam

Name: Surya Nandi 1986 CE

Date of Death: Nov 25, 2020

Surya was a brilliant engineer with specialization in Industrial Steel Structure. He had prospered in his career in early life with strong performance. He was ambitious and had an eye for business. He went to the Middle East in 1998 and started a new job. And slowly, he established business in his own field in Dubai. After more than fifteen years of work life abroad, he came back to India and started various initiatives like partnership business and slowly transitioned to own work. He was again successful in this endeavor. As a human being, Surya was always ground to earth and always very easily accessible. Friendly and a very no-nonsense approach always made him popular amongst peers and all others with whom he interacted. Always ready to help and available at time of need, he was popular in his friend's circle.

He was not keeping well in recent time. However, various ailments including kidney problems could never detract him from his activities and he was always enthusiastic on future business and growth. An ever-optimistic person, Surya has left an indelible mark on his friends and society on a broader term.

May his soul rest in peace.
